

THE AMMAN DECLARATION

THE 4th ASIA PACIFIC MINISTERIAL CONFERENCE ON HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT (APMCHUD)

We, the Asia-Pacific Ministers responsible for Housing and Urban Development, meeting in Amman, Jordan, 10 – 12 December 2012, to consider challenges and to explore opportunities of housing and urbanization in Asia and the Pacific;

Express our sincere gratitude and appreciation to the Government of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan for the excellent arrangements of the Fourth Asia Pacific Ministerial Conference on Housing and Urban Development (APMCHUD) and our gratitude to the people of the Hashemite Kingdom and particularly the city of Amman for the warm reception and hospitality accorded to us throughout our stay;

Also Expressing our sincere thanks to the Republic of Indonesia for successfully chairing the 3rd Bureau of APMCHUD and providing excellent leadership and guidance during the tenure as the chair.

Convey our gratitude to the Executive Director of UN-Habitat for the continuing support provided by UN-Habitat since the creation of APMCHUD;

Thank with appreciation the continued support by the Government of India, more specifically by the Ministry of Housing & Urban Poverty Alleviation for hosting the Permanent Secretariat in New Delhi.

Take note with appreciation the progress that APMCHUD has made since its establishment in serving as a platform for consultation and a vehicle for collaboration in fostering sustainable urban development in the region;

Reaffirm our determination to realize the goals and objectives of APMCHUD as pronounced in the Delhi Declaration and the subsequent commitments agreed in Tehran, the Islamic Republic of Iran, and also in Solo, Republic of Indonesia;

Take cognizance of the dynamic potential of youth across the region in terms of their demographic dominance in our cities, their potential role in socio-economic development, their increasing engagement in the governance of our communities, cities and nations, and also their critical importance in ensuring the sustainable development of our region;

Acknowledge with pride the leadership role our region is assuming in advancing information and communication technology (ICT) globally as well as the increasing usage of ICT in urban, rural and national development;

Acknowledge also the role that cities play in advancing ICT and the way in which the skill, expertise and creativity of youth in the region have served as powerful factors in shifting the technological hub of information and communication to the Asia-Pacific region;

Appreciate the positive experiences acquired in different parts of the region in using ICT for providing livelihoods, improved services, participation in planning, fostering transparency and accountability, and in general promoting the role of youth in local and national development;

Recognize that the dynamism of our youth at local and national level and the potential of ICT needs to fully and optimally utilized;

Cognizant that the challenges of unemployment, alienation, despair, unequal access to resources still undermine the potential of youths in the region, particularly those in the urban centers;

Welcoming UN-Habitat's State of Urban Youth 2012/2013 Report which recommends a better match between education skills and labour market needs through vocational training and the participation of the private sector;

Appreciating the opportunities we have as Ministers responsible for Housing and Urban Development and acknowledging the gravity of the youth challenge as well as the potential of ICT in accelerating sustainable urban development in the region decide:

1. Develop National Urban Policies where they do not exist and review the existing ones in order to promote youth participation in decision making, volunteerism, skills development, employment creation and entrepreneurship development;
2. Call upon the relevant ministries to undertake capacity building within their institutions to meet the changing demands for the utilization of ICT at the national and local levels;
3. Encourage resource mobilization for the benefit of local authorities and municipalities to enable them to achieve the objectives of the declaration;
4. Consider setting up an inter-ministerial committee with relevant ministries working towards implementing youth programmes related to ICT, Housing and Urban Development;
5. Encourage the Executive Director of UN-Habitat to share and build upon the expertise and successes of the United Nations Human Settlements Programme in the area of urban youth with the aim of enhancing the substantial involvement of young people in sustainable urban development in the Asia Pacific region;
6. Agree in principle to contribute a sum of US$10,000 per member state annually to the budget of APMCHUD. However, member states are encouraged to contribute higher amounts. Agreeable member states may start contributing to the budget. For other member states, however, it may be discussed further in the next APMCHUD conference in the Republic of Korea in 2014;

7. Agree to equip the APMCHUD Secretariat with adequate human resources to execute the Implementation Plan agreed in the conference and for long term sustainability of APMCHUD;
8. Commit to actively engage in the 24th Session of the Governing Council of UN-Habitat and to sponsor a resolution on youth, as well as actively involve in the World Urban Forum 7, World Habitat Day, Post 2015 Development Agenda and preparations for Habitat III in 2016;
9. We the Ministers of Asia-Pacific region condemn in the strongest language the increase in violence and terrorist actions which is leading to displacement of people across the region, and to demand the countries and groups behind these calamities to recognize the right of these people to return to their homes and birthplaces. In line with that we call on all members of the United Nations to recognize one's right to their legally owned land and to condemn illegal land acquisition and internal and external displacement of people anywhere.
10. We call on International organizations and especially United Nations and UN-Habitat to strongly continue their mandate and defend the rights of these victims and make the reconstruction of their cities and homes, as well as the provision of shelter for the less privileged in urban and rural areas in the Asia-Pacific region, their main priority.
11. Encourage member countries to take the lead to chair the Working Group 3, and agree to continue with the Working Groups as below:
  - WG1 Urban and Rural Planning and Management with a sub-theme of Youth & IT – Republic of India
  - WG2 Upgrading of Slums and Informal Settlements with a sub-theme Livelihood Opportunities for Youth – The Islamic Republic of Iran
